

A photograph of a garden path lined with a variety of flowers. The path is bordered by a dense arrangement of plants, including tall blue delphiniums, white and yellow daisies, and purple Campanula. In the background, there are large green trees and a clear sky. The overall scene is vibrant and colorful.

Alchemilla mollis, Campanula persicifolia var. alba and Viola 'Boughton Blue' are among plants which billow out over the path that runs through the main border. Behind these low-growing plants rise Cephalaria gigantea, Campanula lactiflora
'Loddon Anna', shasta daisies and delphiniums
